

Math and Numbers - Blank Time Clock

Open clock exercise for kids. The teacher draws the hands of the clock to display different times, then the student writes the correct time on the corresponding blank line for each clock. Or the teacher writes different times on each blank line, then the student draws the hands of the clock that corresponds with the written time.

Name: _____ Date: _____